

VASI supplies a total range of impact sockets and related products like torque sockets, reduction sleeves etc.

Most standard impact sockets from ¼" input to 1½" input are in stock in both metric and imperial sizes.

Non-standard sizes are available on request.

Larger sizes like 2½ and 3½ input drive are also available on request.

- Standard six point socket / Hex socket*
- Bi Hexagon / Double Hex sockets (also referred to as 12 point)*
- Square sockets*
- Bi Square Sockets / Double square (also referred to as 8 point)*
- Octagon sockets
- Thin walled sockets*
- Surface drive sockets
- Stud Runner Sockets
- Sockets for axial nuts*
- Spline nuts
- Universal Joints*
- Extensions*

* Most regular sizes in stock

Sockets can be made in a variety of special materials. Stainless steel, bronze, beryllium copper, plastic, and titanium are some of special material used.

All sockets are made from high quality European steel and hardened according to international standards (Does not apply to sockets made from special material)

Contact us or see our standard catalogue for further information.

